

Kohli's junior cricket career kicked off in October 2002 at the Luhn Cricket Ground against Himachal Pradesh. His first half-century in domestic cricket happened at Feroze Shah Kotla, where he scored 70 runs against Haryana.<sup>[13]</sup> By the end of the season, he had amassed a total of 172 runs, emerging as the highest run-scorer for his side with an average of 34.40.<sup>[14]</sup> During the 2003–04 season of Polly Umrigar Trophy, Kohli was appointed the captain of the U-15 team.<sup>[14]</sup> He scored 54 runs in Delhi's victory over Himachal Pradesh. Virat Kohli ODI Run is 7000